

ST. ANDREW'S EPISCOPAL CHURCH

Mission: To Reveal God's Love by Nourishing the Community through Worship, Acceptance, and Service.

THE FIFTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

PROPER 8

JUNE 27, 2021

10 am

WE'RE BREAKING NEW GROUND!

We're glad you're here! Though we're amid a construction project, it's scheduled to be completed in time for Christmas. In the meantime, you'll find restrooms in the trailer outside. Also, due to storage limitations, our choir and altar party will wear street clothes over the summer.

New to the Episcopal Church or St. Andrew's?

- The black book in the pew is the Book of Common Prayer (BCP). Most of the liturgy is found inside. Page numbers are listed in this bulletin. Congregational responses are noted in bold.
- The BCP contains many prayers, including some for specific occasions (pp. 810-44). Prayer #64 (p. 833) is a great way to tune into the sacred prior to worship.
- You may sit, stand, or kneel as feels most meaningful to you.
- We encourage everyone to come to the altar rail to receive communion or a blessing.
- Please let the greeters at the front entry know if you'd like more information about St. Andrew's, or if you'd like to speak with a priest.

What about children?

Families are welcome in all parts of the church, but the Family Area contains rockers and a child-size table for coloring. Children's worship bulletins and crayons are available from ushers. Sunday School participants will join us at the Peace. You can engage your child in worship by helping them pray with us, notice the gestures of the priest, and sing familiar hymns. Our Children's Comfort Room is also under construction, so please feel free to slip outside if your little ones need a break.

Please remember the following people in your prayers:

Rest of the soul:

For comfort:

For healing:

We pray for the following members of the armed forces: Mark & Frank

In the Anglican cycle of prayer, we pray for The Church of Pakistan.

In the Diocesan cycle of prayer, we pray for the clergy and people of St. Margaret's, Palm Desert.

Celebrating Birthdays this Week: Dominic, Diane, Kevin, Gerrit, Melanie, Constance

Anniversaries: PJ & Robert

Please send your prayer requests to prayer@standrewsepiscopal.org. Names will remain on the prayer list for four weeks.

All Scripture quotations are from the New Revised Standard Version (NRSV) translation of the Bible.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

Opening Acclamation

BCP 355

The Collect of the Day

Almighty God, you have built your Church upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ himself being the chief cornerstone: Grant us so to be joined together in unity of spirit by their teaching, that we may be made a holy temple acceptable to you; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Lessons

(please be seated)

First Lesson: Wisdom of Solomon 1:13-15; 2:23-24

Reader A Reading from the Wisdom of Solomon

God did not make death,
And he does not delight in the death of the living.
For he created all things so that they might exist;
the generative forces of the world are wholesome,
and there is no destructive poison in them,
and the dominion of Hades is not on earth.
For righteousness is immortal.

God created us for incorruption,
and made us in the image of his own eternity,
but through the devil's envy death entered the world,
and those who belong to his company experience it.

Reader The Word of the Lord.

All Thanks be to God.

Lamentations 3: 21-33

Reader We will now read responsively by half verse.

This I call to mind,
and therefore I have hope:

The steadfast love of the Lord never ceases,
his mercies never come to an end;

they are new every morning;
great is your faithfulness.

“The Lord is my portion,” says my soul,
“therefore I will hope in him.”

The Lord is good to those who wait for him,
to the soul that seeks him.

It is good that one should wait quietly
for the salvation of the Lord.

It is good for one to bear
the yoke in youth,

to sit alone in silence
when the Lord has imposed it,

to put one’s mouth to the dust
(there may yet be hope),

to give one’s cheek to the smiter,
and be filled with insults.

For the Lord will not reject for ever.

Although he causes grief, he will have compassion
according to the abundance of his steadfast love;

for he does not willingly afflict
or grieve anyone.

The Gospel: Mark 5: 21-43

Priest The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark.

All Glory to you, Lord Christ.

When Jesus had crossed again in the boat to the other side, a great crowd gathered around him; and he was by the sea. Then one of the leaders of the synagogue named Jairus came and, when he saw him, fell at his feet and begged him repeatedly, “My little daughter is at the point of death. Come and lay your hands on her, so that she may be made well, and live.” So he went with him.

And a large crowd followed him and pressed in on him. Now there was a woman who had been suffering from hemorrhages for twelve years. She had endured much under many physicians, and had spent all that she had; and she was no better, but rather grew worse. She had heard about Jesus, and came up behind him in the crowd and touched his cloak, for she said, “If I but touch his clothes, I will be made well.”

Immediately her hemorrhage stopped; and she felt in her body that she was healed of her disease. Immediately aware that power had gone forth from him, Jesus turned about in the crowd and said, “Who touched my clothes?” And his disciples said to him, “You see the crowd pressing in on you; how can you say, ‘Who touched me?’” He looked all around to see who had done it. But the woman, knowing what had happened to her, came in fear and trembling, fell down before him, and told him the whole truth. He said to her, “Daughter, your faith has made you well; go in peace, and be healed of your disease.”

While he was still speaking, some people came from the leader’s house to say, “Your daughter is dead. Why trouble the teacher any further?” But overhearing what they said, Jesus said to the leader of the synagogue, “Do not fear, only believe.” He allowed no one to follow him except Peter, James, and John, the brother of James. When they came to the house of the leader of the synagogue, he saw a commotion, people weeping and wailing loudly. When he had entered, he said to them, “Why do you make a commotion and weep? The child is not dead but sleeping.” And they laughed at him. Then he put them all outside, and took the child’s father and mother and those who were with him, and went in where the child was. He took her by the hand and said to her, “Talitha cum,” which means, “Little girl, get up!” And immediately the girl got up and began to walk about (she was twelve years of age). At this they were overcome with amazement. He strictly ordered them that no one should know this, and told them to give her something to eat.

The Great Thanksgiving

Eucharistic Prayer B

BCP 367

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your Name, your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. Forgive us our sins, as we forgive those who sin against us. Save us from the time of trial, and deliver us from evil. For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours, now and forever. Amen.

Communion Protocol

Due to current health and safety guidelines, the host (bread) will be dipped in the wine and dropped into your cupped hands. If you prefer to receive a host without wine, simply reach out one hand.
