

ST. ANDREW'S EPISCOPAL CHURCH

Mission: To Reveal God's Love by Nourishing the Community through Worship, Acceptance, and Service.

THE SIXTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

PROPER 9

JULY 4, 2021

8 am

WE'RE BREAKING NEW GROUND!

We're glad you're here! Though we're amid a construction project, it's scheduled to be completed in time for Christmas. In the meantime, you'll find restrooms in the trailer outside. Also, due to storage limitations, our choir and altar party will wear street clothes over the summer.

New to the Episcopal Church or St. Andrew's?

- The black book in the pew is the Book of Common Prayer (BCP). Most of the liturgy is found inside. Page numbers are listed in this bulletin. Congregational responses are noted in bold.
- The BCP contains many prayers, including some for specific occasions (pp. 810-44). Prayer #64 (p. 833) is a great way to tune into the sacred prior to worship.
- You may sit, stand, or kneel as feels most meaningful to you.
- We encourage everyone to come to the altar rail to receive communion or a blessing.
- Please let the greeters at the front entry know if you'd like more information about St. Andrew's, or if you'd like to speak with a priest.

What about children?

Families are welcome in all parts of the church, but the Family Area contains rockers and a child-size table for coloring. Children's worship bulletins and crayons are available from ushers. Sunday School participants will join us at the Peace. You can engage your child in worship by helping them pray with us, notice the gestures of the priest, and sing familiar hymns. Our Children's Comfort Room is also under construction, so please feel free to slip outside if your little ones need a break.

Please remember the following people in your prayers:

Rest of the soul: Lei Lei Wang-Ekval, Jim Temples, Michael Lewis Siegel

For comfort: The Smiley Family, The Temples Family, The Burnett Family

For healing: Dominic, Christie, Tracey, Cindy, Tom, Karina, Mary Virginia, Lois, Paula, Lynn, Richard

We pray for the following members of the armed forces: Mark & Frank

In the Anglican cycle of prayer, we pray for The Anglican Church of Papua New Guinea.

In the Diocesan cycle of prayer, we pray for the clergy and people of St. Paul in the Desert, Palm Springs and for all congregations in transition.

The Collect of the Day

O God, you have taught us to keep all your commandments by loving you and our neighbor: Grant us the grace of your Holy Spirit, that we may be devoted to you with our whole heart, and united to one another with pure affection; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen

The Lessons (please be seated)

First Lesson: 2 Corinthians 12:2-10

Reader A Reading from Second Corinthians

I know a person in Christ who fourteen years ago was caught up to the third heaven—whether in the body or out of the body I do not know; God knows. And I know that such a person—whether in the body or out of the body I do not know; God knows—was caught up into Paradise and heard things that are not to be told, that no mortal is permitted to repeat. On behalf of such a one I will boast, but on my own behalf I will not boast, except of my weaknesses. But if I wish to boast, I will not be a fool, for I will be speaking the truth. But I refrain from it, so that no one may think better of me than what is seen in me or heard from me, even considering the exceptional character of the revelations. Therefore, to keep me from being too elated, a thorn was given me in the flesh, a messenger of Satan to torment me, to keep me from being too elated. Three times I appealed to the Lord about this, that it would leave me, but he said to me, “My grace is sufficient for you, for power is made perfect in weakness.” So, I will boast all the more gladly of my weaknesses, so that the power of Christ may dwell in me. Therefore I am content with weaknesses, insults, hardships, persecutions, and calamities for the sake of Christ; for whenever I am weak, then I am strong.

Psalm 123

Reader We will now read the Psalm responsively by half verse.

1 To you I lift up my eyes, *
to you enthroned in the heavens.

2 As the eyes of servants look to the hand of their masters, *
and the eyes of a maid to the hand of her mistress,

3 So our eyes look to the Lord our God, *
until he show us his mercy.

4 Have mercy upon us, O Lord, have mercy, *
for we have had more than enough of contempt,

5 Too much of the scorn of the indolent rich, *
and of the derision of the proud.

The Gospel: Mark 6: 1-13

Priest The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark.
All Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus came to his hometown, and his disciples followed him. On the sabbath he began to teach in the synagogue, and many who heard him were astounded. They said, "Where did this man get all this? What is this wisdom that has been given to him? What deeds of power are being done by his hands! Is not this the carpenter, the son of Mary and brother of James and Joses and Judas and Simon, and are not his sisters here with us?" And they took offense at him. Then Jesus said to them, "Prophets are not without honor, except in their hometown, and among their own kin, and in their own house." And he could do no deed of power there, except that he laid his hands on a few sick people and cured them. And he was amazed at their unbelief.

Then he went about among the villages teaching. He called the twelve and began to send them out two by two, and gave them authority over the unclean spirits. He ordered them to take nothing for their journey except a staff; no bread, no bag, no money in their belts; but to wear sandals and not to put on two tunics. He said to them, "Wherever you enter a house, stay there until you leave the place. If any place will not welcome you and they refuse to hear you, as you leave, shake off the dust that is on your feet as a testimony against them." So they went out and proclaimed that all should repent. They cast out many demons, and anointed with oil many who were sick and cured them.
